Performing Arts Excursions 2010

For all students from Kindergarten to Year 6

The performances will be at venues outside of school due to the building program at Haberfield. Students will have the opportunity to attend performance at the first class venues of the Seymour Centre & the Sydney Olympic Park.

These performances are linked to the K-6 Creative Arts Syllabus, which includes Music, Dance and Drama. Classroom lessons are also linked to these performances.

Each performance has a fee and we ask that you pay for all performances for 2010 via your class teacher by Friday 7th March. The performances are presented by quality organisations with cost and access as important considerations. We hope to give students a varied and exciting exposure to the Performing Arts.

The performances and costs are as follows;

Term 1: Thursday March 18th, Young Australia Workshop presents "The Adventures of Snugglepoot & Cuddlepie" based on the May Gibbs book. The company of five actors delivers spirited performances which bring to life the exploits of gumnut twins, creating a contemporary fast-paced adventure story. The performance will be at the Seymour Centre for Years K to 4.

Term 2: Wednesday May 19th, Canute Productions presents "My Girragundji" based on the award winning book, Chris Canute has adapted this story about a boy who feels lost, scared & alone for the theatre. The performance will be at the wonderful Seymour Centre for Years 5 & 6.

Term 3: Thursday July 29th, Year 3 to 6 & Friday July 30th Years K to 2 will travel to the Sydney Olympic Park where the Sydney Symphony will present "The Sydney Symphonia" in concert. Students will begin an exploration of music with Wolfgang Mozart and finish with Australian composer Andrew Hindson.

This excursion has been costed on the number of children attending. There is no refund for this payment. This money cannot be transferred to pay for another activity or sporting event.

The TOTAL COST for the two performances including transport is $35.00 for each student.
